

BIOGRAPHY

Holly has had a lifelong interest in acting and as a child actor has appeared in a number of international commercials and television series'. Her most notable role to date is playing the role of Eden in the upcoming New Zealand television drama, 'Testify', which is set to screen in April 2024.

Holly has been in a wheelchair since she was six years old and while she doesn't have the use of her legs she has never let this hold her back. She likes to excel against society's expectations of her disability and take hold of any challenge that comes her way. She's a vibrant up and coming young actress and consistently undertakes every opportunity that comes her way with gusto.
