SASS PINCI

ACTOR . SINGER . WRITER . DIRECTOR

Based predominantly in Melbourne, Sass is an award-winning Actor, Writer, Director, and Producer. She has worked all around Australia, and had her work viewed both locally and Internationally in theatre, film, recording and coaching.

A highly trained Actor and Singer, Sass has had the great honour to study personally with Master teachers such as Brian Hansford, Ruth Gilmore, Merlyn Quaife, Howard Fine and David Coury, and in institutions such as Victorian College of the Arts, The University of Melbourne and Howard Fine Acting Studio, with which she has an ongoing relationship both in Melbourne and L.A.

Predominately a theatre performer from a very young age, the focus more recently has turned to screen, with most notable recent credits including Elizabeth in *Dark Arcadia, Marc Anthony in the internationally acclaimed All the World's a Stage, Queen Evil in award winning horror feature Queen Evil and Grace in the upcoming Australian indie feature When the House is Empty.

As a producer and Director for both stage and screen, Sass has an incredibly hands-on approach and has led and aided many projects to fruition, such as Musical Director for WIT INC's production DEAR MAMA: there's something I have to tell you, Director writer and producer of popular theatre production FRYPAN and Director of the successful Fringe show My Failed Career and Director of upcoming Category 6's The Proposal, as well as Producer and Sound Designer for Incognita Enterprises's series Dark Arcadia and director and producer for Independent's upcoming short film anthology series REELS.

In 2023, Sass was formally inducted as a permanent member of the production house Incognita Enterprises, (formed in 1997 under the Honorary Patronage of Oscar® nominated actor Sir Nigel Hawthorne KB, CBE in 1997 – an association that continued until his passing in 2001), as a Producer, Writer, Actor and heading up production and sound.
