

INT. PAPER'S BEDROOM - IMPRO SCENE

PAPER (12) is in her bedroom.

This is her private world and she loves it. It's full of art, hand-made objects and creative materials. Paper is focused and content in her world.

Please explore, in any way or order you wish, the following few actions in this private space.

- Peel off your socks, freeing your feet. Rub your hot, tired toes now they are out of the socks, observing them.
- Find a small length of string you have placed somewhere in the room and wind it around your fingers, so it becomes like a piece of jewellery.
- Something moves in the corner of the room. It is something you love. A huge magical dragon that only you can see. Your companion, always there for you.
- Put on your headphones, and choose some music that you know your dad would think is inappropriate. Now you are ready to enter the world outside.
