

LOC. INT. COMMUNITY CENTRE - MORNING 1

AUDREY, TOADIE

AUDREY'S GOOD NATURE APPEALS TO TOADIE

Audrey and Toadie are getting ready for a Buddy Club session.

AUDREY

What you're doing for these kids is really wonderful.

TOADIE

Can't take all the credit. Volunteers like you are what makes this place work.

AUDREY

Well, it's my pleasure to help.

TOADIE

Have you done this sort of thing before?

AUDREY

Not working with kids, but I grew up in a small town and my parents were pretty into helping the community.

TOADIE

Right. My parents' idea of helping the community was running the sausage sizzle for Aus Kick on a Saturday morning.

AUDREY

Yep, we did a few of them. Lots of fundraisers, clothing drives and bake sales.

TOADIE

What was the vanilla slice game like in your home town?

AUDREY

Award winning.

TOADIE

Aren't they all?

AUDREY

Ours really was though. One food magazine named it best in the state five years in a row. It's got it's own Instagram.

TOADIE

Wow. How many followers?

AUDREY

I don't know, I've never been on it...

Thinking of the task ahead, Audrey gets a little nervous and awkward.

AUDREY

So, any tips on how to win the kids over?

TOADIE

Don't let them see any weakness, or they'll walk all over you.

He's only joking, but Audrey thinks he means it.

AUDREY

Really?

TOADIE

No, they're a sweet group of kids.

AUDREY

Right, sorry.

TOADIE

Some of them speak sarcasm as a first language though, so watch out for that.

AUDREY

Sarcasm... Is that a new rap or something?

TOADIE

Well played.

But as innocent Audrey looks puzzled, Toadie becomes less confident she's joking... Until Audrey smiles.

TOADIE

They're going to love you.

AUDREY

I sure hope so.
